

Stop in to find out, Where is Bob the Builder? Bob may turn up anywhere in the library this summer to help you discover new books and activities. When you find Bob, come by the Circulation Desk to pick up your prize. Come experience something different, discover something new, and build a life-long love of reading and learning at The Fendrick Library!